

0.1 Action: The picnic basket

Characters:

Narrator: Guides the story and asks questions to the audience.

Picnic Group:

The Leader: Energetic and enthusiastic.

The Hungry One: Always focused on food.

The Lost One: Easily distracted and prone to wandering off.

The Helper: Always ready to lend a hand.

The Worrier: Concerned about everything.

The Others: (5 additional characters) Can have various personalities to add humor or variety.

Scene: A park or forest clearing. A large, colorful picnic blanket is spread out, but it's empty.

Introduction: The Narrator sets the scene. The Picnic Group enters, looking excited. They notice their picnic basket is missing.

Vocabulary Practice:

Leader: "Oh no! Where is our food?" (Points to their stomachs and makes a sad face)

Group: (Together) "Hungry!"

Helper: "Let's look around! Maybe it's close."

Narrator: (To the audience) "What do we call the things we eat at a picnic?"

Audience: (Hopefully) "Food!"

Search Begins: The Group spreads out, using simple English phrases like "I see a tree," "Is it under there?" They find clues:

A piece of fruit (apple, banana, etc.)

A napkin

Footprints

Narrator: (Each time a clue is found) "What did they find?" (Holds up a picture of the item)

Encountering Obstacles:

Lost One: (Walks in a circle, confused) "Where am I?"

Worrier: "Oh dear! What if we never find it?"

Leader: "Don't worry! We'll find it together!"

Narrator: (To audience) "What do we say when we're scared or worried?"

Audience: (Hopefully) "Help!" or "Scared!"

Discovery: The group follows the clues and eventually finds the picnic basket hidden behind a tree or bush.

Hungry One: "Hooray! Food!"

Group: (Cheers and claps)

Celebration: They enjoy their picnic, using simple phrases to describe the food: "Yummy," "Sweet," "Delicious," "Good!"

0.3 Reading and comprehension

Let's introduce Emma

My friend's name is Emma. She's a student and she's 21 years old. She has lots of friends because she's very friendly and she always makes people laugh. Emma loves going out with her friends at the weekend and dancing in clubs, but she doesn't like noisy parties at home. She's quite tall and slim. She has long straight brown hair and big green eyes. She usually wears jeans and a T-shirt or a dress. Emma's from London, but she lives in a student house in Manchester during term time. She studies English Literature at Manchester University and she wants to be a writer one day. Emma also loves travelling. She's been to France, Spain, Italy and Greece. Last summer she went to Australia and she stayed with some friends in Melbourne for three months. She loved it! Emma's very intelligent and she works hard at university, but she doesn't study all the time. She often goes to the cinema or reads books in the park when it's sunny. Her favourite author is Jane Austen and her favourite film is The Shawshank Redemption. Emma's really nice and she's a great friend. I see her every day at college and we have lunch together. We sometimes go shopping after college or go to the cinema at the weekend. We're both busy, but we always make time for each other.

Questions

1. What is Emma's occupation?
2. Where does Emma live during the term time?
3. Which countries has Emma visited?
4. What is Emma studying at Manchester University?
5. What does Emma do in her free time when it's sunny?
6. Who is Emma's favorite author?
7. How often do the author and Emma see each other?
